prevent disaster?*

Nightsleeper NEW

Sun & Mon, 9pm, BBC1 Drama (box set, BBC iPlayer)

Joe Cole and Alexandra Roach lead the cast of this modern twist on the runaway-train genre as off-duty cop Joe Roag and cybersecurity expert Abby Aysgarth. The six-part series is set on a sleeper train from Glasgow to London. As the train comes under attack and hurtles towards what could be its final destination, the two strangers must work together to stop disaster, while dealing with the rapidly escalating events on board. Other cast members include David Threlfall, Ruth Madeley and Sharon Rooney.

Waste not, want not!

Nadiya Hussain on how to transform leftovers into delicious meals...

NADIYA'S COOK ONCE, EAT TWICE

Tuesday, 7.30pm, BBC2 Cookery

Q What's the inspiration for this series?

A The cost of food has gone up so much and we're more aware than ever of how much we're spending and how little we are getting for it. I come from an immigrant household where nothing is wasted and I want to show people that using leftovers is easy, cost-effective, good for the environment and fun.

Q The premise is you take one recipe and create two meals. How does that work?

A So, if I'm making a carrot soup, I'll make double the amount and turn the second batch into a curry. Doubling up and making meals you can put in the freezer saves time, energy and money.

Q Which recipes are your family's favourites?

A My kids love the cheesy-chowder corn pies. Other family favourites include Mongolian beef leftovers that I turn into beef sushi wraps with sticky rice, and also sloppy joes, for which I use mince with pickled egg and red onions.

Q What sweet treats can we look forward to?

A Lots! One of my favourites is banana doughnuts using leftover bananas and a really simple raspberry pudding. There's also a delicious trifle for which I do no cooking but use leftover cake, strawberries, custard out of a can and lemonade for a zingy jelly.

Super-savers...
Banana bark (top)
and carrot soup

Q Which are the most commonly thrown-away foods that we can make use of?

A Bags of soggy salad can be transformed into great pasta sauces and potato peelings are brilliant for thickening soup. Stale bread can be used to make a granola and banana peel can make great curries.

Q What else can we expect in the series?

A In each of the six episodes, there will be a special guest who will be showing some of the things we can do to make food go further. In the first episode, we have cookery author Elly Curshen, who's created a successful blog about it.

Treasuring trash... Banana

Sun and secrets!

Tamzin Outhwaite, Angela Griffin and Jo Joyner team up for a Maltese mystery...

THE WIVES

Monday-Wednesday, 9pm, Channel 5 Drama

The lives of three sisters-in-law unravel as they return to their sunny bolthole in Malta, where a fourth mysteriously disappeared a year earlier, in Channel 5's six-part thriller The Wives.

Every summer for the past 15 years, four sisters-in-law – the Morgans – and their families have holidayed at their lavish apartments in Malta. Sylvie (Tamzin Outhwaite) was happily married, Natasha (Angela Griffin) was rich, while Beth (Jo Joyner) and Annabelle (Christine Bottomley) were thick as thieves.

This year, however, everything's different. Sylvie's single, Natasha's cash-strapped, Beth's at a crossroads and Annabelle's missing, presumed dead!

Big changes

'As Beth hits middle age, and her sons are heading off into the world, she's struggling with what her place is,' says Jo. 'She's really missing Annabelle; it's becoming her obsession. Something doesn't feel right.'

So, when Annabelle's husband Charlie

(Jamie Bamber) arrives with his new girlfriend, Jade (Katie Clarkson-Hill), who looks just like Annabelle, a suspicious Beth wants Natasha and Sylvie's help to investigate...

'Beth's initially on her own in the belief there's more to Annabelle's disappearance,' says Jo. 'But then Natasha and Sylvie pick up the baton and run with it.'

Tense times

With corrupt officials and drug cartels on their tails, though, will the wives wish they'd stuck to sun and sipping cocktails?

While the storyline may be tense, the filming experience was far from harrowing...

'Malta has a special place in my heart; I love the people and culture,' says Jo. 'Any scenes with us drinking wine were my favourite. I seem to be all right at drunk acting – I've no idea how!'

Runaway train!

Joe Cole and Alexandra Roach play two strangers who must foil a terrorist plot...

NIGHTSLEEPER

Sun & Mon, 9pm, BBC1 Drama (box set, BBC iPlayer)

Get ready for the most nerve-jangling train journey of your life in this BBC1 thriller about a sleeper service that's hijacked by cyberterrorists!

Set in real time, the opening episode of this six-parter begins when off-duty cop Joe Roag (Peaky Blinders star Joe Cole) takes his seat on an overnight train from Glasgow to London.

However, the service is hijacked – or 'hack-jacked' – by a dangerous group who hold all aboard hostage as they hurtle across the country.

To the rescue...?
David Threlfall as cyber expert Paul

'I can't recall any TV show quite like it,' says Joe. 'It's a bit like that Keanu Reeves movie Speed, because they're on this runaway train and they're not in control!'

Terrorism

Meanwhile, at the National Cyber Security Centre in London, acting technical director Abby Aysgarth (No Offence's Alexandra Roach) receives a chilling message from a mysterious figure, 'The Driver', threatening to crash the train if their demands aren't met, throwing Abby and Joe together in a desperate race to save the lives of everyone on board.

'Joe and Abby can only talk on the phone,' explains Joe. 'We had a big scene at the start where Alex was on a loudspeaker, which gave us both a sense of each other's tone and pace.'

Gripping... Joe has to leap into action

With a supporting cast including David Threlfall, Ruth Madeley and Sharon Rooney, much of the series was filmed in a group of old train carriages in a Glasgow studio.

'The carriages had these incredible LED screens next to them,' says Joe. 'They'd recorded the exact journey and some people were getting travel sick during the shoot because it looked so real!'

Saturday, 7.20pm,
BBC1 Entertainment

Let the joy and sparkle of Saturday nights begin, as 15 new stars begin their Strictly journeys!

The 20th-anniversary launch show pairs the celebs with their pro partners, and sees Amy Dowden return to the ballroom following her breast-cancer diagnosis to perform a stunning quickstep alongside her fellow pros.

There's also a routine from 2023 winners Ellie Leach and Vito Coppola and a fast-paced group dance, while Tess Daly and Claudia Winkleman add their usual twinkly humour as hosts.

With the show live-signed for the first time via BBC iPlayer and the Red Button, our weekends are looking fab-u-lous once again. So meet the famous faces getting ready to rumba...

A right royal disaster

Michael Sheen and Ruth Wilson on portraying Prince Andrew's disastrous TV interview with Emily Maitlis...

Talking point...
The real Andrew
and Emily in 2019

A Very Royal Scandal

Available: Thursday 19 September Genre: Drama Season: 1 Eps: 3

When Newsnight presenter Emily Maitlis interviewed Prince Andrew at Buckingham Palace for BBC2's late-night news show in 2019, it sent shock waves around the world.

Their infamous conversation saw the journalist questioning the Duke of York about his friendship with American sex offender Jeffrey Epstein, and allegations from American woman Virginia Giuffre, who claimed she'd been coerced into a sexual relationship with the royal when she was 17.

This three-part drama shows the events leading up to the sensational news show, the interview itself and its aftermath.

Michael Sheen and Ruth Wilson step into the roles of Prince Andrew and Emily Maitlis, while Claire Rushbrook plays the prince's former wife Sarah Ferguson and Joanna Scanlan is his private secretary Amanda Thirsk. The drama begins with Emily and her Newsnight team trying to secure an interview. Eventually, the prince agrees to talk to her...

'Andrew wants to put an end to the difficulties that he finds himself in – the scandal, the controversy,' says Michael. 'He thinks that putting his side of the story out there will put an end to all this and then they can move on.'

Although Andrew leaves the interview in a chipper mood, thinking it went well, he later finds that it's only made things worse for himself, while praise is heaped on Emily for a job well done.

'I was utterly gobsmacked when I saw the interview,' says Ruth. 'I thought it was one of the best pieces of drama I had ever seen on TV. My first thought was, "How can we better that?" But our story is fascinating as it goes behind the scenes of these two public figures. We see Emily how she is at home, how these journalists got this interview, and why Prince Andrew decided to do it. It's funny and moving.'

NEW

Available: Fri 20 September
Genre: Comedy Season: 2 Eps: 10 (first two eps from 20 Sept, then weekly)

The last time we saw Frasier Crane (Kelsey Grammer), his former radio producer Roz Doyle (Peri Gilpin) paid a surprise visit to his new home in Boston.

And there are more familiar faces in Season 2 of the relaunched sitcom as a trip to Seattle reunites the psychiatrist with his former colleagues from the radio station, Bulldog

Classic character...
Peri Gilpin as Roz

(Dan Butler) and Gil (Edward Hibbert)! 'We got to hang out at the radio station,' says Jack Cutmore-Scott, who plays Frasier's son, Freddy. 'That was a surreal episode for me!'

Nicholas Lyndhurst is back as Frasier's buddy Alan Cornwall, while there's also plenty in store for chalk-and-cheese father and son Frasier and Freddy.

'There's a Valentine's Day episode, and a bunch of romantic things throughout the season,' teases Jack. 'Meanwhile, Frasier and his son Freddy still butt heads!'

Killer sons... The actors portraying the tragic Menendez family

NEW

NETFLIX Monsters: The Lyle and Erik Menendez Story

Available: Thursday 19 September
Genre: Drama Season: 2

On 20 August 1989, brothers Lyle and Erik Menendez killed their parents, José and Mary Louise, AKA 'Kitty', and were later sentenced to life behind bars.

The prosecution argued that the brothers were seeking to inherit their family's fortune but, even as they now serve their sentences without any possibility of parole, the pair are adamant they committed the murders to escape a lifetime of physical, emotional and sexual abuse.

Now, the story has been turned into a true-crime drama series, part of the Ryan Murphy/Ian Brennan Monster anthology, which previously focused on serial killer Jeffrey Dahmer. Nicholas Alexander Chavez and Cooper Koch play Lyle and Erik, while Javier Bardem and Chloë Sevigny are portraying their murdered parents. It also poses the question, 'Who are the real monsters in this case?'

Agatha All Along

NEW

Available: Thu 19 Sept Genre: Fantasy drama Season: 1 Eps: 9 (first two eps from 19 Sept, then weekly)

Fan favourite Agatha Harkness, the mischievous witch from 2021 Marvel series WandaVision, takes centre stage in spin-off show Agatha All Along.

After being stripped of her powers and trapped in Westview, New Jersey, Agatha is finally freed by a mysterious goth called Teen, played by Heartstopper's Joe Locke, who wants her to take him on the Witches' Road – a series of magical trials where anyone who can complete them is rewarded with what they are missing. Determined to get her witchy abilities back, Agatha assembles a coven of misfits to help them on their way.

'Agatha delights in being a villain,' says head writer and executive producer Jac Schaeffer. 'She's the most hated witch on the planet, and now she must convince a group of other witches to join her cause...'

Connection...
Freddie is there for scared Anna

Anna's heartbreak

Her life changes course as Freddie supports her through a termination...

Tuesday

MUST-SEE EPISODE!

Although the chemistry is bubbling over for Anna and Freddie, Bobby hasn't noticed the sparks flying between his girlfriend and best friend. He's also unaware that Anna's nauseous and having dizzy spells because she's pregnant with his child! The baby bombshell couldn't have hit at a worse time, what with Freddie and Anna fighting their feelings for each other.

This week, after she tries to convince herself that she's happy to be pregnant, Anna realises she's kidding herself.

Betrayal

Taking Gina's advice, she looks into her options. But to her horror, Freddie ends up clocking the online research she's done into terminations.

Begging him to keep quiet, Anna dodges Bobby and sneaks off to the clinic. But back in the Square, Peter tells his brother that Lauren reckons Anna is pregnant.

With that, Bobby, who's been so caught up with work at Beale's Eels, reels in shock and acknowledgement.

At the clinic, Anna goes ahead with her decision and is moved when she enters the waiting room to find Freddie sat there. Escorting her back to The Vic, Freddie's all she needs and as they melt into a kiss, absorbing the heartache

Theory... Peter tells Bobby (right) that Anna might be pregnant

of it all, in walks horrified Bobby...

'Obviously, Freddie and Anna had a fling before, but I don't think Bobby is suspicious that it might happen again. He's very trusting and wants the three of them to spend lots of time together in this little friendship group. Maybe because of that, he hasn't seen what's going on and he doesn't believe that Freddie would do something like that again,' says Clay Milner Russell, who plays the betrayed Beale.

Furious, Bobby lunges at Freddie, accusing him of getting Anna pregnant. As sides are taken, how will the painful, messy saga end?

Lovers at last?

Will flirty Cassie and Steve finally give in to their chemistry?

Despite everything, Steve and Tracy have managed to remain friends since their marriage break-up.

When Tracy left Steve for his footballer hero Tommy Orpington and moved to Spain with the soccer ace, he was broken.

After licking his wounds, the seven-times married cabbie's return to the dating scene brought Demi into his life. But when Cassie started working for the Barlows as Ken's unlikely carer, that romance faded into the background as the sparky banter began to fly at No.1.

'They are like young kids in the playground when the boy you fancy comes up and annoys you and runs away – it's as basic as that,' explains

Claire Sweeney, who plays Cassie. 'It's classic romcom stuff and it will be interesting to see that develop.'

Cassie didn't take it too well when territorial Tracy returned to Weatherfield last month claiming she was home to see her dad Ken and daughter Amy – and the bad feeling was mutual. While the women took turns in tearing each other to shreds, doubting each other's motives at No.1, Steve got to the truth of his ex's reappearance and listened as she admitted she was lonely in her villa in Spain as Tommy is always out at work.

Now, having listened to Amy, Tracy's giving Tommy another chance.

Encouragement

Having begrudgingly accepted that Cassie's good news, Tracy does the decent thing as she bids her family farewell and urges Steve to go for it, adding that Cassie clearly fancies him.

Will Steve take the plunge and put his heart on the line for love?

Taking a chance...? Steve

Joel caught?

Dee-Dee and DS Swain make headway in the case...

So far, Joel Deering's got away with abusing teen Lauren Bolton. The bent solicitor may have lost his former fiancée Dee-Dee – who knows he's guilty – but he's not about to give up his freedom without a bitter fight.

Confession

Although the case is officially closed, DS Lisa Swain is still secretly working on it with lawyer Dee-Dee.

This week, as they try to talk to sex worker Ellie, they're sickened when Joel informs Carla that he's taking her to court for slander.

As the twosome work out their next move, it's Lauren who could end up with a lead when she receives an unexpected visitor...

With momentum building, Lisa and Dee-Dee discover the Bistro van has a dashcam. Will its footage prove Joel bought the abortion-inducing drugs Lauren was fed?

Meanwhile, as they inch closer to the truth, Betsy tells Sabrina she's done something 'really bad'. And when Lauren's baby has a seizure, Betsy unburdens herself to Carla and her copper mum Lisa... What's she done? Was Joel involved?

Are the women about to get the abuser charged once and for all?

Deal... Will (left) turns to Caleb for a loan

Missing... Who's nabbed Kim?

Kim KIDNAPPED!

As Will tries to pay off his blackmailer, his wife vanishes from Home Farm...

Guilt-ridden Will Taylor has been tying himself up in knots to make sure Kim doesn't find out he slept with Rose.

But someone knows his sordid secret and is using it to claw money from him. And to prove they really mean business, they've taken his wife's beloved horse Ice!

Last week, desperate Will missed a vital meet-up when he was called to help with the inferno at Butlers – and now his angry blackmailer wants more cash...

Wanting the nightmare to be over, desperate Will tells Caleb that he can have all of his shares in the haulage business in exchange for a loan of £40K.

'In his head, he thinks if somebody asks for X amount of pounds, you find X amount of pounds and then the problem will go away. Whether that, in reality, is the case, somebody with a little more intellect might think that the blackmailer will just keep coming back for more,' says Dean Andrews, who plays cheating Will.

Ransom

With the deal with Caleb done, Will contacts his tormentor before filling in Jimmy. His partner is furious but Will hasn't got time for an earbashing.

Back at Home Farm, where Kim's promised him lunch, Will finds the food burnt and no sign of his wife. But a chilling phone call explains everything – Kim's been taken!

Having been given strict instructions, Will Spooked... Will comes across a dummy dressed as Kim

Leverage... Will Jai (left) reconnect with Arthur by covering for him?

Jai's next move

Will he betray Arthur or win the teenager round?

When Arthur returned to Mulberry Cottage following his trip to Australia to visit his grandfather Doug, he was horrified to learn about what had been happening at home.

Not only had his mum's marriage broken down but Jai, the man who he viewed as a father figure, was now persecuting Laurel and threatening to oust them from their family home.

Arthur was sickened by Jai's savage behaviour and has been standing up to his shocked stepdad, making it clear that he's not going to let him hurt his mother.

Cold shoulder

As Jai continues his mission to win round the feisty teenager, the Sharma's given some words of encouragement from Charles, who says he would do anything to spend time with his dead son Ethan.

However, Arthur's not interested, and blanking Jai, he instead invites a date, Lewis, round to the house. When Jai later spots the 17-year-old trying to get rid of some empty beer cans, will he report his lager-filled hook-up to Laurel or keep shtum?

Matchmaker... Davina (centre) with this year's parents and their grown-up children

A fine romance!

Davina McCall helps more single parents in their search for love...

NEW

MY MUM, YOUR DAD

Monday-Friday, 9pm, ITV1 Factual

Another plucky bunch of lovelorn midlifers are grabbing a second chance at romance – with some guidance from their kids – in the return of ITV1's My Mum, Your Dad.

Hosted once more by Davina McCall, the series sees eight single parents in their 40s and 50s head to a retreat to discover if Cupid's arrow will strike.

Meaningful messages

But this time, they know they're being watched from a bunker by their grown-up children, who have influence over some events and can send their parents notes.

'In the first series, they didn't know that their kids were watching. But now they're aware of that, so there's extra meaning to any messages,' explains Davina. 'The parents think, "What are they trying to tell me?"'

During their stay, the singletons go on a variety of dates and take part in workshops to help them learn from their past behaviour and build better relationships.

'One guy had a fling and regrets it and comes to terms with it. Another lady seemed confident, but was vulnerable,' says Davina. 'There are themes like trust and loneliness. But there's self-reflection.'

Keeping watch... The kids spy on their folks

Meet-cute... Davina (left) with the eight singletons

But some of their revelations, and the romantic bonds they forge, surprise their kids – and Davina!

Private moments

'When the adults talk about life before children, their kids go, "I forgot they were people, not just parents,"' she explains.

'And we have a snug with a switch where the parents can cut the connection. There are kisses! Before filming, I was matchmaking everybody and I got them all wrong!'

Vernon Kay and AJ Odudu host a competition putting wannabe designers to the test...

This week, 10 hopefuls with dreams of working in the fashion industry are given the chance of a lifetime in ITV1's competitive new series M&S: Dress the Nation.

Hosted by AJ Odudu and Vernon Kay, the participants must prove they've got what it takes to work with M&S' design team.

'The prize is life-changing. The winner will join the M&S team and have their design in stores across the nation!' reveals AJ.

Competitors include retail worker Katie, 24; fabric-shop owner Sandeep, 33; pattern cutter Daylan, 30; project worker Tedai, 44; office manager Chris, 38; shop

Each week, they tackle various tasks before being judged by a panel of experts, celebrity guests and M&S customers. It's womenswear first and they must create a piece alone, then work as part of a team to create a mini collection – with Mel B as star judge!

'Some of the contestants have been to design college and some are self-taught,' explains Vernon. 'The whole process is so emotional – you'll be glued every week!'

But when Latvia was alternately occupied by Nazi Germany and the Soviets during World War Two, many Latvians fled the country. In 1944, Veronika handed 12-year-old Eddie over to his father, who took him to a German refugee camp before settling in Essex, while Veronika stayed in Latvia and never saw her son again.

Unmarked grave

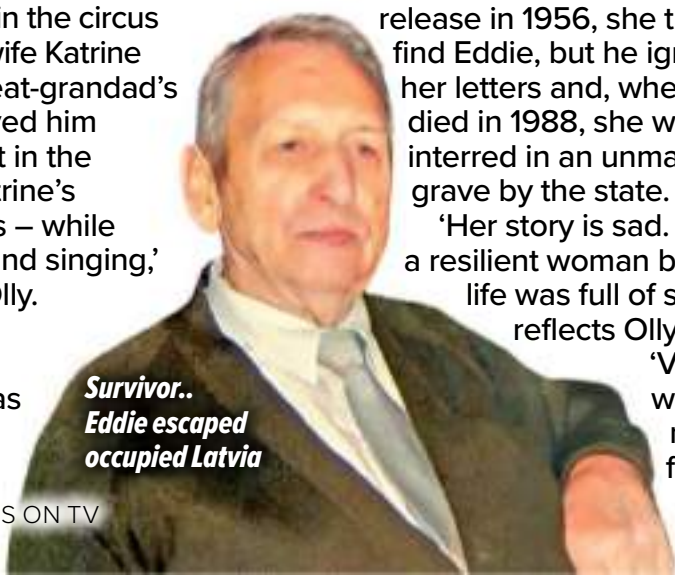

'Grandad felt she'd abandoned him,' shares Olly. 'But without her brave decision, he'd never have had the life he did.'

Veronika served time in a labour camp for making anti-Soviet statements, and on her release in 1956, she tried to find Eddie, but he ignored her letters and, when she died in 1988, she was interred in an unmarked grave by the state.

'Her story is sad. She was a resilient woman but her life was full of suffering,' reflects Olly.

'Veronika will now never be forgotten.'

Survivor...
Eddie escaped occupied Latvia

Olly Murs was thrilled to hear about the circus performers in his ancestry when he explored his family tree for Who Do You Think You Are? but he also uncovered a tragic tale of wartime separation.

The pop star travelled to Latvia, where his late paternal grandfather, Eduard Murs, known as Eddie, was born in 1932. Olly discovered that his great-grandmother Veronika Jankowska was a trapeze artist and had had an affair with Eddie's father, Eduard Murs Sr, who was also in the circus with his wife Katrine.

'My great-grandad's act involved him being 12ft in the air on Katrine's shoulders – while on stilts and singing,' reveals Olly.

The Last Leg's presenters host a glittering event to honour our Paralympics medal winners...

THE NATIONAL LOTTERY'S PARALYMPICS GB HOMECOMING

Saturday, 5.30pm, C4 Factual

Adam Hills, Alex Brooker and Josh Widdicombe are hosting a musical extravaganza to celebrate an incredible Paralympics for Team GB in Paris.

After an impressive medal haul, including golds for swimmers Poppy Maskill, Tully Kearney, William Ellard and Stephen Clegg, plus wheelchair racer Hannah Cockcroft and shot-putter Sabrina Fortune, our Paralympics team will be treated to a night of special musical performances from the likes of Aitch, Sugababes, Jonas Blue and Craig David from Birmingham's Utilita Arena.

'It was amazing to be in Paris. We were at the Opening Ceremony and you see all these athletes walking past and wheeling past and being celebrated and cheered – that was incredible.'

'We're lucky because we have met quite a lot of the athletes through The Last Leg, so it will be good to now see them as old friends.'

Nerves

However, Josh also admits that hosting such a major musical event to an audience of thousands of people is absolutely nerve-racking.

'I actually find it quite terrifying,' he says. 'Also, I'm buzzing to meet the Sugababes, so I don't want to blow it in front of them.'

Banjo Beale returns to add a splash of design magic to more Hebridean interiors...

The Puffer pub before (top) and after

Home sweet home... Banjo with his pet dog Grampa

Former Interior Design Masters winner Banjo Beale is back to deliver more of his divine designs around the Scottish isles that he calls home in the second series of Designing the Hebrides.

In the opening episode, Banjo and his team of talented tradespeople head to Easdale – the smallest permanently inhabited island in the Inner Hebrides, with a population of just 60 – to breathe fresh life into The Puffer pub for its new owners, Jhennia and Rachel.

'I underestimated how important pubs are to local communities,' Banjo tells us. 'The locals didn't really want to change it, so the biggest challenge was getting them onside and convincing them that I wasn't going to rip out the heart of their community.'

Huge effort

After getting the residents' seal of approval, Banjo faces a different challenge – transporting his materials to the pub's remote location.

'We did about 12 trips back and forth on a boat,' he recalls. 'We didn't have a car, so we had to carry everything to the pub in a wheelbarrow! It was all hands on deck – the whole community helped. They wanted their pub finished!'

Despite working within a short time frame and to a tight budget, Banjo delivers a stunning new look for the pub – and fortunately, the owners and locals were happy with the results.

'I'm usually nervous that they might hate it, even if I think it's the best thing I've ever done,' he says. 'They've spent their own money on it, so waiting for their reaction is really nerve-racking – if they like it, it's a wave of relief!'

Caught in the crossfire

Innocent bystander Elle Edwards was killed in a pub shooting...

On Christmas Eve 2022, beautician and dental nurse Elle Edwards was celebrating in The Lighthouse pub in Wallasey, Merseyside, when gang member Connor Chapman opened fire with a sub-machine gun.

Elle, 26, was standing outside at the time and was killed instantly as 12 rounds of bullets were fired indiscriminately.

'This was a residential area, a pub where people were celebrating Christmas Eve,' says broadcaster Dermot Murnaghan, who hosts Crimes That Shook Britain. 'Elle was caught up in this random, savage event.'

This first episode of the new series shows how Merseyside Police learnt the intended targets were rival gang members Kieran Salkeld and Jake Duffy, who were injured.

Officers built evidence against Chapman, including DNA on the bullet casings and CCTV footage of him, before arresting him in Tesco in Newtown, Wales, where he'd fled.

On 7 July 2023, Chapman was given a life sentence.

'There was no regret, no remorse, he just didn't care,' recalls Elle's dad, Tim. 'Elle would light up a room.'

'Now, it's always there and every morning I wake up and just have to keep going, putting one foot in front of the other. It's all I can do.'

BRITAIN'S ATOMIC BOMB SCANDAL

9pm, C4

In the 1950s and 60s, over 22,000 British military personnel were stationed in the South Pacific for nuclear weapons tests. They were given no protective gear or training and as the weapons were detonated, they were simply told to turn away from the blast and cover their eyes with their hands. This documentary explores the catastrophic effects on the veterans. A significant number went on to suffer health problems and many of their descendants were born with birth defects. Yet there are issues concerning access to their records and they haven't yet received compensation. The programme outlines the shocking legacy of the British nuclear test programme and the 70-year fight for justice.

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Michael Fassbender and Dominic West are Roman centurions in brutal 117AD Britain who've fallen foul of Olga Kurylenko. It is silly, but looks great and lets rip with slashings, stabblings and gougings. (2009, 15)

Die Hard with a Vengeance ★★★

10.05pm-12.40am, ITV4, Action

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

The stunts are awesome and the dialogue snappy in this enjoyable third film. Bruce Willis' New York cop John McClane deals with a devious Jeremy Irons, roping in Samuel L Jackson to help. (1995, 15)

Friday

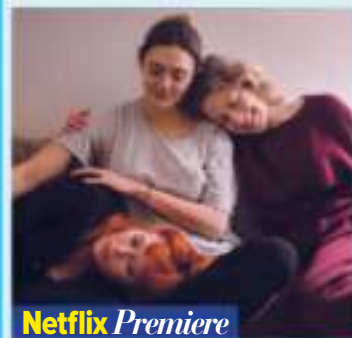

Netflix Premiere

Armageddon Time ★★★

On demand, Netflix, Drama

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

In 1980s Queens, a boy (Banks Repeta) realises his friend (Jaylin Webb) is treated differently because of his skin colour. Anthony Hopkins also stars in a warm, richly textured drama. From today. (2022, 15)

Netflix Premiere

His Three Daughters ★★★

On demand, Netflix, Drama

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Three sisters (Carrie Coon, Natasha Lyonne and Elizabeth Olsen) gather at their dying father's apartment for his last moments. Initially unengaging, this warms up nicely to a satisfying wrap-up. From today. (2023, 15)

21 Jump Street ★★★★★

9.00pm-11.10pm, ITV2,

Action comedy

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Bungling cops Jonah Hill and Channing Tatum are sent to sour-faced Ice Cube's unit and go back to school undercover to expose a drug ring. This raucous film delivers plenty of funny jokes and action. (2012, 15)

Deadpool 2 ★★★★★

9.00pm-11.20pm, Film4, Superhero

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Ryan Reynolds' Deadpool is back for his second solo adventure and he's every bit as hilarious, irreverent and outrageous as before. The film pokes gleeful fun at the superhero genre as he takes on cyborg Cable (Josh Brolin). (2018, 15)

G.I. Joe: The Rise of Cobra ★★★

12.45am-2.45am, C4, Action

Sex ●●● Violence ●●● Language ●●●

Channing Tatum joins Dennis Quaid's elite Global Integrated Joint Operating Entity unit, just as it takes on arms dealer Christopher Eccleston and Sienna Miller (Tatum's ex). A fun, well-done yarn. (2009, 12)

LEST WE FORGET

Sculptural Desk Clock

In tribute to our nation's courageous military heroes

inches in height

In Flanders Fields the poppies blow, between the crosses, row on row...

Lieutenant-Colonel John McCrae's poetic tribute to those who lost their lives during WWI forever stirs our nation's emotions whilst also evoking pride in those who have served their country – past and present. The Bradford Exchange pays tribute to our armed forces with the Lest We Forget Sculptural Clock – an exclusive presentation officially endorsed by the Lest We Forget Association and limited to just 9,999 individually numbered editions worldwide.

Handsculpted and handpainted, with illumination and John McCrae's poem

Expertly handcrafted, this clock depicts two hand-sculpted soldiers, their heads bowed in solemn remembrance. Each is handpainted in rich bronze patinas, reminiscent of museum-quality pieces. The precision Quartz movement clock is set into a transparent art panel which features a montage of soldiers set against a field of vibrant red poppies. Hidden LED lights illuminate the scene on the face, which is also accented with a memorial wreath and the tribute, Lest We Forget. The bevelled, wood-tone base features a golden excerpt from John McCrae's 'In Flanders Field' poem.

Limited to just 9,999 individually numbered editions – order your tribute now!

This tribute clock is accompanied by a Certificate of Authenticity and our famous 365-day money-back guarantee. It is available for just 4 interest-free instalments of £24.99 – that's only £99.96 (plus £9.99 S&S)*. Pay nothing now – complete and return your Priority Order Form today!

Please note: The first 100 edition numbers may be secured at a higher price whilst stocks are available. This sculptural clock has been endorsed by the Lest We Forget Association (charity number 1162122). | © The Bradford Exchange. * S&S - Shipping & Service. Offer applies to UK only. Independently tested & certified by physiotherapists

Insta-Relieve Acupressure Pad has been independently tested and certified by a leading physiotherapist who concludes that the Insta-Relieve Acupressure Pad can help relieve lumbar pain just after one use so there should be little or no need to take painkillers for any length of time, if at all.

INSTA-Relieve

INSTANTLY STOPS BACK PAIN in its tracks!

Now you can carry on with working, walking, jogging, running, playing golf, tennis, pilates, yoga... in fact just about any activity you do, you can do wearing Insta-Relieve Acupressure Pad, you can even wear it in bed!

Tried, trusted and used by 1000s across Europe

Breaking the pain signal

The sciatic nerve is the longest and largest spinal nerve in the body which begins in the lower back, extends through the buttocks and down the legs.

When you wear an Insta-Relieve Acupressure Pad below the knee the acupressure pad gently pushes against the sciatic nerve in the calf. This breaks the pain signal travelling through the body.

It's a wrap to fit virtually all Insta-Relieve Acupressure Pad is so easy to wear. Simply place

How it works

The acupressure pad on Insta-Relieve gently compresses the acupressure point in the centre of the calf muscle so it interrupts the pain signal before it can radiate up and down your body.

around your calf and fasten firmly using the touch-close fastening. So easy to adjust the straps to fit your leg and it can be worn on either the right or left leg dependent on which side of the lower back the pain is.

Order Insta-Relieve today for a RISK-FREE 90 day trial. If you're not entirely satisfied simply return it for a full refund (incl. P&P).

"Best bit of gardening equipment bought in a long time. Has cut down (no pun intended!) the time spent on hedge trimming by at least half. Well made, well balanced, not too heavy and a pleasure to use."

Donald B. ★★★★★

"Extremely pleased with my hedge trimmer. My hedge which used to take a day to cut was completed in one full charge of the g tech."

William L. ★★★★★

The secret to a beautiful hedge is regular trimming – Gtech's innovative cordless HT50 makes trimming hedges a pleasure.

No cord, no fuss

Moving around your garden is a joy with the HT50's extended 60 minutes of run time.* There are no cables, or petrol engines to refill, just freedom to roam. A high torque 18V motor, supplies the HT50 with power directly when needed, while the lightweight but strong drive system is precise and quiet to run. But don't be fooled – the laser cut precision blades power through branches up to 25mm thick – encouraging growth of a healthy, luscious hedge.

Extra reach

With an adjustable head that rotates through 135°, the HT50 gives you ultimate control over cutting your hedge. Adjust the head downwards so you can cut the top of your hedge easily, and upwards to slice through thorny branches without scratching your arms. The 50cm blade helps you reach up to 10ft†, cutting flat along the top of hedges for an immaculate finish. Power through foliage, leaving behind clean cut, healthy stems which will bud into a beautiful, rich textured hedge.

Perfectly precise

Weighing only 2.94kg and accompanied by the harness, you can move freely around your garden without feeling anchored down. The HT50 is well balanced giving you a more enjoyable gardening experience without worrying about the weight.

Individual RRP of the HT50 is £249.99 and Branch Cutter is £24.99 which gives a total RRP of £274.98. Offer valid until 31/10/2024 or while stocks last and cannot be used in conjunction with any other offer. 30-day money-back guarantee, excluding £10 collection fee. Limited 2-year warranty. †Depending on the height of the user. Order before 7pm for Next Day Delivery to UK mainland (excludes Scottish Highlands). See website T&Cs for details. *Run times quoted may vary depending on conditions of branches being cut.

Includes Branch Cutter

Make light work of sawing through branches of up to 60mm thick with this cutting attachment – offering the ultimate in versatility.

Get the HT50 Long Reach Hedge Trimmer and Branch Cutter bundle for just £199.98 (RRP £274.98) saving £75 if you order before 31.10.24.

A lasting legacy

It was truly captivating to see the late Michael Mosley in Channel 5's Michael Mosley: Wonders of the Human Body, one of his last documentaries filmed before his sudden passing. His passion for exploring medical science shone brightly through his engaging storytelling. The legacy he left behind will continue to educate and inspire new generations.

Food for thought

When I'm watching a travel programme, I want to see the beautiful scenery or activities available, not the presenter cooking, eating or drinking wine. The worst is travel shows about Cornwall in which the presenter has scones and asks if the cream or jam goes on first – who cares?

Thinking positive

As someone who's had a breast-cancer recurrence after 12 years, I was impressed that Coronation Street is showing that not all cancers are deadly. My recurring cancer is 'intentionally curable', according to my hospital team.

Heart-warming and groundbreaking

The BBC have a groundbreaking comedy drama on their hands with We Might Regret This. The story of Freya, a talented tetraplegic artist, is profoundly moving and inspiring. Having watched the show with my disabled partner, we must say that it is beautifully crafted, allowing us to empathise with Freya's struggles. We Might Regret This is a must-watch – a thoroughly heart-warming and thought-provoking series.

I hope Toyah's storyline encourages viewers to think about how they can help cancer research. Currently, my husband and I donate books we've read to cancer charity shops. There is real hope if we all have more awareness and positivity.

Tiger tales

BBC2 documentary My Tiger Family was one of the most extraordinary animal stories I've ever witnessed. It featured and was narrated by Valmik Thapar, who in the 70s travelled to Ranthambore National Park in

Powerful... My Tiger Family introduced us to tigress Riddhi

India to help the 'Project Tiger' conservation initiative, then never left. Hearing and seeing the deeply personal connection Valmik has with these majestic animals was so moving.

Riding high!

What a joy it was to watch ITV1's Champions: Full Gallop, a series about horse racing. Seeing the goings-on at the training yards of Paul Nicholls, Willie Mullins and Dan Skelton was so informative, not to mention the risks the jockeys take on a daily basis. More of the same, please!

Whenever you hear your granddaughter's name, your heart is filled with love and joy! And you will always be there for her – wishing a future of hope, happiness and dreams that come true. This beautiful personalised bracelet is a wonderful celebration of the granddaughter you will treasure forever. Plated in shimmering rhodium-platinum, the bolo-style bracelet is finely handcrafted with your granddaughter's sculpted name forming a centrepiece. The name is accented on either side with a delicate heart that is set with her crystal birthstone and 10 luminous cultured freshwater pearls, which graduate in size. The slider bead is set with a genuine diamond and engraved with 'I Love You'. The 'My Treasured Granddaughter' Personalised Bolo Bracelet is adjustable from 6" to 9" and can be customised with ANY name of your choosing. It arrives in a keepsake box that includes a sentiment card customised with her birth month. What a wonderful gift!
